Frequently Asked Questions

Where can I get my entry form?

The entry form is available online or at the Celina Public Library. You can download the form here.

How can I submit my entry?

To submit your entry, drop it off at the Celina Public Library by Friday, September 12th, 6 PM. The City of Celina will use entries for marketing purposes so original artwork will not be returned.

How are winners chosen?

Our City librarians will compile the entries and City staff will then have an opportunity to vote. One winner from each age group will be selected.

What are the prizes?

One winning entry from each age category will be printed on (500) promotional bookmarks for Beware! of the Square 2025. The winner's name's will be featured on the bookmark as well as in @LifeInCelinaTX social media posts. The winners will also receive a Celina Public Library Gift Certificate that is good for up to $5 of books in the Library Book Sale.

How/when will I be notified if I've won?

The City of Celina will only contact the winning designer through email. Winner will be notified by September 18, 2025. If you are not selected as a winner, you will not be notified.
